UNIVERSITY of NEW HAMPSHIRE

Destination UNH!

The University of New Hampshire and Seacoast Region of New Hampshire are great places to visit any time of year and afford visitors direct travel routes to most areas.

LEFT: Historic Portsmouth, N.H. is minutes away and renowned for its fine dining, art galleries, shopping, and entertainment. RIGHT: Hot fun in the summertime! Learn more about local beaches at www.visitnh.gov.

Boston (to the south) and the White Mountains (to the north) are only an hour's drive away.

Tours and INFORMATION Sessions

Campus Tours

A 90-minute walk led by a student representative, the tour provides an overview of campus life and academic opportunities. Tours are offered most weekdays. Registration is required.

Group Information Sessions

Conducted by admissions staff members, information sessions introduce you to UNH academic programs, campus life opportunities, and admissions criteria.

A campus tour follows each session. Registration is required.

Admitted Student Open Houses

Admitted students will be invited to spring open house programs. Registration is required.

Schedule and plan your visit with us online at www.unh.edu/admissions/visit or by calling (603) 862-1360.

BEYOND the classroom

A LAND-, SEA-, AND SPACE-GRANT UNIVERSITY, UNH is the state's flagship public institution. The University comprises the College of Engineering and Physical Sciences, the College of Health and Human Services, the College of Liberal Arts, the College of Life Sciences and Agriculture, the Whittemore School of Business and Economics, the Thompson School of Applied Science, the Graduate School, UNH Manchester, and the UNH School of Law.

UNH HAS A WELL-EARNED REPUTATION for attracting talented students from across the United States and from around the world. Prospective students are inspired to come here for the great breadth and depth of our academic programs, our campus beauty, and our proximity to the ocean, mountains, and Boston.

WHEN YOU JOIN the UNH community, you will be welcomed into a rich history of traditions, dating back to the University's founding in 1866. From patting the Wildcat statue for good luck to celebrating University Day, you will find that high-energy traditions are part of what makes UNH a fun place to call home.

THIS SELF-GUIDED TOUR gives you an overview of the University's culture, landscape, and academic programs. But it is only a start. The UNH Admissions Office looks forward to meeting you soon.

You can plan your visit and apply to UNH online at www.admissions.unh.edu.

STOPS on the tour

1. Begin your tour starting from the Admissions Office at Smith Hall (E-6).

2. Holloway Commons (C-6) is one of our three campus dining halls that win national awards for their nutritious menus, special programs, and innovative recipes.

3. Known as the "MUB," the Memorial Union Building (C-6) houses a post office, food court, movie theater, bookstore, and office space for student organizations.

4. Each year, hundreds of students enrich their educations through academic and career advising, honors, international education, and undergraduate research programs—all at Hood House (C-6).

5. Hamilton Smith Hall (D-6) houses the Robert J. Connors Writing Center and is also where students from every major come to study Freshman English.

6. Named for Benjamin Thompson, a Durham farmer and businessman who donated his estate to establish UNH, Thompson Hall (D-5) is now the administrative building.

7. Murkland Hall (D-5) is home to the College of Liberal Arts. This building was named for Charles S. Murkland, the University's first president.

8. Dimond Library (D-5) is a beautiful place to study, offering floor-to-ceiling windows, an abundance of natural light, and a great café.

9. DeMeritt Hall (E-5) houses the physics department. This building offers state-of-the-art labs, classrooms, a library, conference rooms, and a demonstration room.

10. Hewitt Hall (E-4) is home to the College of Health and Human Services—well known for its hands-on learning requirement in all majors.

11. James Hall (E-4) houses the earth sciences and natural resources and the environment departments. In 2010, James Hall received LEED Gold certification for its resource-conserving design.

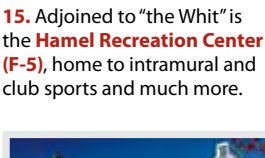

12. The education department is as big as a small college. It even has its own building, Morrill Hall (E-5).

13. With its hi-tech labs and classrooms and floor-to-ceiling climbing wall, New Hampshire Hall (F-5) buzzes with students majoring in kinesiology.

14. The Whittemore Center (G-5) is home to our very own Wildcat champion hockey teams, concerts, and other events.

15. Adjoined to "the Whit" is the Hamel Recreation Center (F-5), home to intramural and club sports and much more.

16. Congreve (E-6) residence hall is a mere hop, skip, and a jump from campus recreational facilities.

BEYOND the tour

Horton Social Science Center (C-5) houses the renowned Crimes Against Children Research Center that influences national policies.

Paul Creative Arts Center (C-5) is the center for visual arts, music, and theatre. The museum's permanent collection includes more than 1,500 works of art. Admission is free and we welcome you to check it out.

Morse Hall (D-3) is home to the University's renowned Institute for the Study of Earth, Oceans, and Space, with lab space for some of the world's greatest scientific and engineering minds.

Cole Hall (I-3) is home to the Thompson School of Applied Science, offering hands-on associates degrees.

The Whittemore School of Business and Economics prepares students for real success in the real world. In 2013, the business school will move from McConnell Hall (B-5) to a brand new state-of-the-art facility.

The Horse Barns (I-2) are run by students in the equine program. Visitors are welcome at the horse barns. In the spring and fall, UNH hosts horse trials, which bring together about 150 competitors of all ages and abilities.

With its shops and eateries, downtown Durham is the center of a classic New England college town. It borders the UNH campus, so getting there is as easy as crossing the street.

At the center of campus, Mills Hall (B-6) offers suite style living for 358 students.

Christensen and Williamson (A-3, B-3) residence halls incorporate a "First-Year Student Experience" theme into hall events and programs.

Petee Hall (E-4) houses the College of Health and Human Services departments of family studies and social work.

Kingsbury Hall (C-4) provides thousands of square feet of student project space where future engineers and scientists work on everything from moon buggies to molecules.

SERC (C-3, C-2, B-2) residence halls offer four- and six-person suites and an attractive pedestrian promenade connecting the three buildings.

Rudman/Spaulding halls (D-4) are the center for much of the College of Life Sciences and Agriculture's "living laboratory."

The Field House (G-3) houses UNH Athletics and includes basketball, indoor track, and swimming facilities for use by students and faculty.

Set inside a renovated 1896 railroad station, the UNH Dairy Bar (G-4) is a favorite stop for a quick bite or for hopping on the Amtrak train to Boston or Portland, Maine.
