Tours and Information Sessions

Destination UNH!
The University of New Hampshire and Seacoast Region of New Hampshire are great places to visit any time of year and afford visitors direct travel routes to most areas.

Tours
A 90-minute walk led by a student representative, the tour provides an overview of campus life and academic opportunities. Tours are offered most weekdays. Registration is required.

Admitted Student Open Houses
Admitted students are invited to spring open house programs. Registration is required.

Information Sessions
Conducted by admissions staff members, information sessions introduce you to UNH academic programs, campus life opportunities, and admissions criteria.

Campus Tours
A 90-minute walk led by a student representative, the tour provides an overview of campus life and academic opportunities. Tours are offered most weekdays. Registration is required.

Admitted Student Open Houses
Admitted students are invited to spring open house programs. Registration is required.

Information Sessions
Conducted by admissions staff members, information sessions introduce you to UNH academic programs, campus life opportunities, and admissions criteria.

Campus Tours
A 90-minute walk led by a student representative, the tour provides an overview of campus life and academic opportunities. Tours are offered most weekdays. Registration is required.

Admitted Student Open Houses
Admitted students are invited to spring open house programs. Registration is required.

Information Sessions
Conducted by admissions staff members, information sessions introduce you to UNH academic programs, campus life opportunities, and admissions criteria.

Campus Tours
A 90-minute walk led by a student representative, the tour provides an overview of campus life and academic opportunities. Tours are offered most weekdays. Registration is required.

Admitted Student Open Houses
Admitted students are invited to spring open house programs. Registration is required.

Information Sessions
Conducted by admissions staff members, information sessions introduce you to UNH academic programs, campus life opportunities, and admissions criteria.
Stops on the tour

1. Begin your tour starting from the Admissions Office (J-5).

2. Paul College of Business and Economics (J-4) opened its doors in 1989. We look forward to meeting you. If you missed the tour, feel free to explore the campus on your own using this self-guided tour route.

3. Memorial Union Building (H-8). It is a beautiful place to study, with its 1,500 works of art. Admission is free and open to the public.

4. Holloway Commons (G-7) houses a post office, food services such as counseling, education, a pharmacy and other services. You can also get acupuncture for students.

5. Famous home of Sir Edward Thompson, a Durham farmer and President of the University’s first president. His estate was purchased by the University of New Hampshire in 1913.

6. Thompson Hall (G-7) houses the physics department. This building offers state-of-the-art science facilities, classrooms, a library, conference rooms, and a demonstration room.

7. Hamilton Smith Hall (F-6) is home to the College of Health and Human Services departments of family studies and social work.

8. James Hall (F-5) is home to the College of Liberal Arts. This building was named to the College of Liberal Arts.

9. Murkland Hall (F-5) is home to the College of Health and Human Services—well known for Charles S. Murkland, the Wildcat champion hockey teams, and other events. The museum's permanent collection includes more than 1,500 works of art. Admission is free and open to the public.

10. Dimond Library (F-6) is a favorite stop for a coffee break when visiting campus. It houses the Robert J. Connors Student Experience" theme laboratories and programs.

11. The Whittemore Center (E-6) is home to the College of Life Sciences and Earth Science, offering hands-on learning for 358 students.

12. The Whittemore Center (E-6) is connected to the Whitfield Center for Excellence and the Whitfield Center for Excellence in the earth sciences and natural resources and provides thousands of square feet of lecture rooms, conference rooms, and a demonstration room.

13. James Hall (F-5) is home to the College of Business and Economics.

14. The Whittemore Center (E-6) is home to the College of Business and Economics.

15. The Whittemore Center (E-6) is home to the College of Business and Economics.

16. Congreve (E-6) is home to the College of Business and Economics.

Beyond the tour

- Natural History Museum: Explore the natural world with a visit to the museum and its exhibits on wildlife, ecology, and sustainable practices.

- Paul Creative Arts Center: Located in downtown Durham, this center is home to the University's creative arts programs, including music, theater, and visual arts.

- The Horse Barns (J-4) are open year-round and offer riding lessons for all ages and abilities.

- The Field House (D-3) houses a 6,000-seat arena including basketball, indoor track, and community classes for the university and local communities.

- The Haaland (H-3, I-3), Peterson and Haaland (H-3) are the center of campus. Mills Hall (H-4) offers upper-style living for 388 students.

- The Field House (D-3) is a favorite stop for a coffee break when visiting campus.